

8th International Conference on Symmetries and Integrability of Difference
Equations (SIDE8) June 22–28, 2008
8^e Conférence internationale “Symétrie et intégrabilité des équations aux différences” (SIDE8) 22–28 juin, 2008

Mariusz Bialecki
Institute of Geophysics
Polish Academy of Sciences
Ksiecia Janusza 64
Warszawa, Warszawa 01-452
POLAND

`bialecki@igf.edu.pl`

Abstract

A discrete construction inspired by Sato theory is considered. Usage of difference operators instead of differential ones makes it valid for any field, in particular for finite fields. We discuss new properties of the presented construction. In particular a problem of estimation of the number of multisoliton solutions among all solutions over finite fields is studied.

Presented ideas are illustrated in a case of the dKP equation.