

8th International Conference on Symmetries and Integrability of Difference
Equations (SIDE8) June 22–28, 2008
8^e Conférence internationale “Symétrie et intégrabilité des équations aux différences” (SIDE8) 22–28 juin, 2008

Claude Viallet
LPTHE
CNRS / Univ. Pierre et Marie Curie
4 Place Jussieu, Tour 16 (Rdc)
F-75252 Paris, Cedex 05
FRANCE

`viallet@lpthe.jussieu.fr`

Abstract

To any discrete rational evolution (maps, lattice maps, . . .), one may associate an “algebraic entropy”. Its non vanishing is a measure of the non-integrability of the system. Since there is a long-standing conjecture that the algebraic entropy always is the logarithm of an algebraic integer, one may wonder which values it actually achieves. We will mainly address this question.